

LAGUNA MOUNTAIN VOLUNTEER ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL TRAINING

MAY 22nd 2010

Entrance to the Mt. Laguna area circa 1920's

Learn about volunteer activities in the Cleveland National Forest at Annual Training, sponsored by LMVA. Free. Continental breakfast will be served. 9 am-3 pm May 22nd 2010. Sessions include training on Visitor Center staffing, trail maintenance, litter removal, trail sign maintenance, nature walks, and more. Bring a sack lunch, and dress for unpredictable spring weather. Registration/continental breakfast from 8-9 am, training sessions begin at 9. There will be a field trip/short hike in the afternoon. Attendees can stay free at the Volunteer Activity Center (Roost) Friday and/or Saturday night. The Roost is located 8.5 miles north of I-8 on Sunrise Highway, across from the volunteer fire department just past the 22.5 mile marker.

For more info or to RSVP, contact Lindsey Williams at (619) 473-1065.